

IMPORTANT COMMUNICATION

As a precautionary measure in relation to the containment of the pandemic COVID-19, and following the advice of the Italian Government, our offices will remain closed to the public from tomorrow 17 March 2020. All events and activities that require attendance are suspended until further notice. An online alternative will be activated shortly for students studying Italian language courses at the Institute.