Call for

Premio Italia 2023 National Prize for University Students of Italian

The Embassy of Italy in Canberra sends a call to all university students studying Italian for the best essay, short story or comic strips, of no more than 1,500 words, written in Italian. The competition is open to students enrolled in a program leading to an undergraduate or a graduate degree, and undertaking a course in the Italian Program of an Australian University.

The theme of this year is:

L'ITALIANO E LA SOSTENIBILITÀ

The Prize is a voucher (AUD 2,000.00) to purchase a RETURN FLIGHT TICKET TO ITALY offered by the Italian Cultural Institute in Melbourne (* conditions apply). The Prize will be announced on 21st October 2023, during the Conference for Teachers of Italian, organized in Brisbane.

Universities are invited to express their wish to participate by 20/08/2023, by e-mailing Bruna.Carboni@anu.edu.au with PREMIO ITALIA as subject.

The works must be submitted to the relevant department of participating universities. The university will send a copy of the written essays, short story or comic strips with a brief presentation of the authors - no more than 200 words - via e-mail, to the same address Bruna.Carboni@anu.edu.au with PREMIO ITALIA as subject, by 30/09/2023.

Selection Board: Paolo Barlera, Director of IIC Sydney, - Valentina Biguzzi, Education and Cultural attaché Embassy of Italy in Canberra, - Bruna Carboni, MAECI lecturer at the Australian National University, - Antonella Cavallini, MAECI lecturer at the University of Melbourne, - Maria Rosaria Francomacaro, MAECI lecturer at the University of Western Australia, Perth. The selection board will be joined by any new MAECI lecturers.
